COURT CIRCULAR says:—"Much as we liked Mr. Brooke's former work, his last book infinitely surpasses it in every way. From the first chapter to the last the attention of the reader is enchained."

QUEEN says:—"A vein of pleasant humour and lively fancy runs through this story from beginning to end."

COURT JOURNAL says:—"Laurence Brooke is a brilliant writer."

SWEETHEART and WIFE. By Lady Constance HOWARD. 3 vols. Second Edition.

WHITEHALL REVIEW says:—"The story from first to last is attractive, and cannot fail to command wide favour. . . . There is, indeed, throughout the whole of the story a most unusual power, not only of language, but of imagination, and the tender pathos which is introduced in no laboured fashion adds a charm which it is difficult to describe, but impossible for the reader not to appreciate."

LIFE says:—"Sweetheart and Wife" is a love idyll, skilfully painted in the midst of many people and many scenes, described by one who writes with that very rare attribute of the modern novelist—knowledge of, and familiarity with, the society she pictures."

WAS HERS the FAULT? By the Author of "A Cruel SECRET," "WOOLING a SWEETBRIAR," &c. 3 vols.

QUEEN says:—"There is much cleverness in the story."
